

Bank of Ireland Launch New Workbench in St. Stephen's Green

Workbench is a unique concept which connects entrepreneurs, Branch, and community by offering free dedicated space for co-working, seminars, clinics and events to encourage innovation and new ideas. This is part of our FDI offering for new companies considering Ireland to be their next location.

Our workbench offering is continually growing and we are proud to launch our new St. Stephen's Green workbench in the heart of Dublin city. Located above our St. Stephen's Green branch this new workbench delivers private office space, boardrooms, meeting rooms, WIFI and complimentary refreshments.

Our St. Stephen's Green workbench joins the growing network of workbenches located across the country in the following locations:
