

Partner for Growth in the Care Sector

August 2019

Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking is delighted to continue our support of Trinity Care Group (Trinity Care) with their acquisition of AnovoCare Nursing Home.

Trinity Care is one of the leading nursing home operators in Ireland and, with this acquisition, owns and manages 7 nursing and rehabilitation centres in the Leinster and Ulster area with over 500 beds.

Keith Robinson, CEO of Trinity Care said: “We are delighted to have the continued support of Bank of Ireland to assist us in financing the AnovoCare acquisition. This acquisition represents a further stage of an exciting growth strategy for Trinity Care which will continue over the next few years. We greatly appreciate the expertise and high quality service that was provided by Bank of Ireland.”

Kevin Healy, Senior Manager, New Business Origination at Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking said: “It was a pleasure to support Keith and the Trinity Care team in the acquisition of AnovoCare Nursing Home. Bank of Ireland understands the unique funding requirements of the long-term care residential sector and this, combined with our specialist sector experience, ensures that the Bank is uniquely positioned to support the strategic growth ambitions of high quality operators like Trinity Care.”

Hilary Coates, Head of Health Sector at Bank of Ireland said: “We recognise the strategic imperative to continue to support investment in the long-term care sector for the country’s ageing population enabling both our customers and communities to thrive.”

Nikki Canavan, Head of Origination and Market Development at Bank of Ireland said: “The New Business Origination team in Bank of Ireland are delighted to continue to support a great business in their growth plans.”
