

A pristine deal

June 2019

Bank of Ireland's Northern England team support Johnson Service Group plc ("JSG") as part of their multicurrency revolving credit facilities.

The Manchester based Corporate Banking team is delighted to provide committed debt facilities to JSG as part of its £135m three bank club revolving credit facility. This facility funds JSG's working capital and growth - including ongoing investment in state of the art laundry operations, which will enable it to continue to deliver outstanding levels of customer service and thereby further maintain its market leading position in its chosen sectors.

Headquartered in Cheshire, JSG provides textile rental and related laundry services across the UK, where JSG is the leading supplier of workwear and protective wear and also provides linen services to the hotel, catering and hospitality markets for both premium and high-volume services, processing over 500 million items a year.
