

Disclaimer: This document has been prepared by the Economic Research Unit at The Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland ("BOI") for information purposes only and BOI is not soliciting any action based upon it. BOI believes any information contained in the UK, for each that have to any party under the European Communities (Markets in Financial Conduct Authority rules (where the client is resident in the UK), for each graph of the binder of the point Harmonised EU Programme of Business and Consumer Surveys. Any survey data communicated or published in this document in the UK, and the binder of the point Harmonised EU Programme of Business and Consumer Surveys. Any survey data communicated or published in this document or otherwise. This document or sensible for any use that may be made of the information. Any decision made by a party after reading this document shall be on the basis of its own research and not be influenced or based on any view expressed by BOI either in this document or otherwise. This focument or otherwise. This focument is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information advice before making any investment decision. Expressions of opinion contained in this document or otherwise. This document or otherwise. This document or decision and advice before making any investment decision information available to Bo before the which is subject to limited the property of BOI and its contents may not be reproduced, either in whole or in part, without the express written consent of a suitably authorised member of BOI. By accepting this document, the recipient agrees to be bound by the foregoing limitations. Bank of Ireland is regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland in Regulation Authority and Prudential Regulation Authority. Details about the extent of our authorisation and regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority are available from us on request. Bank of Ireland in conformation and regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority and Prudential Regulation Authority. Details about t