Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking is delighted to support MHL Hotel Collection's recent acquisition of the Moxy Hotel Dublin.

Moxy Hotels is Marriott International's new economy lifestyle brand, a design-led, boutique-hotel concept with a chic, modern, and edgy personality. It joins MHL's collection of unique and individual hotels in key city and resort locations throughout Ireland.

Commenting on the transaction, Ken Brady, Head of Origination at Bank of Ireland said: "We are delighted to have supported MHL in their latest and exciting addition to their portfolio. We recognise the challenges facing the hospitality sector at present but we are confident in the long term prospects for the sector as a whole and are delighted to be able to support our customers at this time."

Paul Higgins, Partner at MHL said: "We are very pleased with the support we have received from Bank of Ireland particularly given the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on the hospitality sector. The funding process went very smoothly and it was a pleasure to deal with the Bank of Ireland New Business Team who were proficient, pragmatic and delivered on time. We are delighted to have purchased the Moxy Dublin and look forward to opening the doors and welcoming customers in June 2021."

At Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking, building relationships with our customers is at the core of how we do business. Our dedicated New Business team take the time to get to know your company, your management team and your unique strategy. See how we can support your business to succeed, exceed and thrive.
