What our customers say about us

" First class and trusted banking partner who have provided support, insight and consistency during a period of considerable uncertainty across most business sectors and a well informed and stable relationship team who listen to what we say and understand our business."

Hayleigh Lupino, Chief Financial Officer, Marston's Plc

" Bank of Ireland's support, not least over the last couple of years has been excellent. Their responsiveness and assistance throughout the pandemic gave the business additional certainty and allowed management to focus on delivering great hospitality and a very strong financial performance. This demonstrated Bank of Ireland's commitment as a long-term banking partner."

Gregor Grant, Chief Financial Officer, Loungers Plc
