

The Next Level

Bank of Ireland's London based Technology & Telecoms team has supported Keywords Studios plc with a $30m commitment in a new $400m Revolving Credit Facility to be used to provide liquidity for future growth.

Established in 1998 and AIM listed in 2013, Keywords Studios is an international technical and creative services provider to the global video games and entertainment industries with over 70 facilities in 26 countries.

Strategically located in Asia, Australia, the Americas and Europe, the business provides services across the entire content development life cycle through its Create, Globalize and Engage service lines to a large blue-chip client base across the globe.

Keywords has a strong market position, providing services to 24 of the top 25 games companies. Clients include Activision Blizzard, Bandai Namco, Bethesda, Electronic Arts, Epic Games, Konami, Microsoft, Netflix, Riot Games, Tencent and Ubisoft.

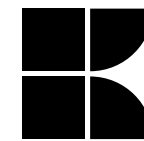

Commenting on the transaction Adam Ball, Head of Technology & Telecoms, Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking UK said: "We are delighted to join the Keywords bank group at this exciting time for the business and provide liquidity to support Management's strategic growth ambitions".

Adrian Zilinsky, Group Treasurer of Keywords, stated: "We are pleased to bring Bank of Ireland into our core banking group and thank Adam and the team for the strong impetus to understand the Keywords' credit and run a seamless transaction process. On a personal level, I am excited to have the opportunity once again to be working with Bank of Ireland in my new role at Keywords Studios and look forward to building a solid partnership with a great institution".
